PUTRAJAYA (March 22): The government has allocated an initial fund of RM10 million for special assistance for Malaysians and foreigners who experience adverse side-effects after being vaccinated under the National Immunisation Programme.

Health Minister Datuk Seri Dr Adham Baba, when announcing the matter today said the fund, 1 Relief Trust Fund (KWABBN) will be managed by the National Disaster Management Agency (N

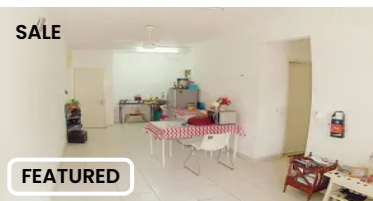

He said vaccine recipients who suffer serious side-effects that require long-term hospital treatment while RM500,000 aid would be given in the event of death or permanent disability due to Covid

“The special financial assistance is a proactive move by the government to deal with the possibility about by the Covid-19 vaccine,” he said told a press conference here.

Present was National Covid-19 Immunisation Programme Coordinating Minister Khairy Jamal

Dr Adham said, it is hoped that the special assistance could help meet the needs of vaccine reci members who might be affected by the side-effect of the Covid-19 vaccine.

He said the Health Ministry had set up three committees, namely the Special Pharmacovigilanc
Vaccine Monitoring; the Medical Technical Committee; and the Special Financial Assistance Ste Vaccine Exigencies to conduct the side-effect assessment.

The Special Pharmacovigilance Committee for Covid-19 Vaccine Monitoring would monitor and the immunisation and safety issues related to the vaccine, he said.

Dr Adham said the Medical Technical Committee, which consists of medical experts, will deteri the special financial assistance has a causal relationship with the Covid-19 vaccine.

“The assessment will be done on a case-to-case basis based on the evidence received and the re
